¹Ins. by financial act No V of 2019 s.10.

37. Delegation. The Authority may by general or special order delegate to the Chairman or a member or a Registration Officer, or any member of its staff, or an expert, consultant, adviser, or other officer or employee of the Authority, any of its powers or functions under this Ordinance subject to such conditions as it may think fit:

Provided that any person to whom the powers of a Registration Officer, not including the Director General, stood delegated under the provisions of the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973), immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been delegated under this section unless revoked by the Authority by a general or special order.

38. Reports to the Governments. —(1) The Authority shall submit at the end of every calendar year, but not later than 31st of January of the following year—

- (a) a report to the Federal Government on the performance of its functions and exercise of its powers and the carrying out of its purpose and objects during the year so ending and the anticipated developments for the following year; and
- (b) a report on the state of development, establishment and maintenance of registration and database systems in the country and all related matters identifying the problems, prospects and other necessary areas and matters for the Federal Government, or concerned Provincial Government or local authority's consideration and action, if any suggested in the report.

(2) Copies of the report, or relevant portions thereof, mentioned in clause (b) of sub-section (1) identifying problems, prospects and other necessary areas and matters for a particular Provincial Government's or local authority's consideration or action shall also be furnished simultaneously to the concerned Provincial Government or local authority.

39. Certain arrangements to continue. All contracts, agreements, promises, negotiations and working arrangements made and understandings reached including any bidding process initiated as a result of any requests for proposals sought from prospective contractors, and all liabilities incurred including any contingent or future liability on account of availing any services, etc., by the National Database Organization and the Registration Organization on behalf of the Federal Government in connection with, or for the purpose of, or in relation to the same objects, purposes, functions and powers as those of the Authority, before the establishment of the Authority, shall be deemed to have been made, reached or incurred, as applicable, by the Authority under this Ordinance and shall have effect accordingly.

40. Indemnity. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Federal Government or any Provincial Government or Local Authority, any Registration Officer or any other person exercising any power or performing any function under this Ordinance, for anything which is in good faith done or purporting or intended to be done under this Ordinance or any rule.

41. Transfer of employees and assets etc.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, rules regulations, contract, agreement, or in the terms and conditions of their service or in the provisions of the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973), the Civil Servants Act, 1973 (LXXI of 1973), on the establishment of the Authority, all persons appointed or employed in the National Database Organization and the Registration Organization, immediately before the establishment of the Authority, in particular, all Registration Officers appointed pursuant to section 3 of the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973), and other officers and employees, whether recruited initially or absorbed or inducted subsequently, including a person on deputation to any other organization, department, agency or formation in Pakistan or abroad but not being person on deputation or secondment to the Registration Organization or the National Database Organization from any other organization, department, agency or formation, shall stand transferred to and become Registration Officers and other officers and employees, as applicable, of the Authority on the same terms and conditions including remuneration, tenure of service, rights and privileges as to pension and gratuity and other matters which were applicable to them immediately prior to the establishment of the Authority.

(2) The Federal Government shall pay to the Authority, pension charges and gratuity in respect of, and provident fund accumulations of, persons transferred to the Authority by virtue of sub-section (1) or sub-section (9), as they have become entitled to, or have been earned by them, or have accumulated till their transfer to the Authority as aforesaid.

(3) On transfer to the Authority as provided in sub-section (1) or sub-section (9), all Registration Officers and other officers and employees shall, where applicable, cease to be civil servants and shall be deemed to have been appointed and have respectively become the Registration Officers and other officers and employees of the Authority as if originally appointed under this Ordinance as if they were always the Registration Officers, officers and employees of the Authority, as applicable, except for the purposes of financial benefits which they shall not claim from a date prior to the date of their transfer to the Authority as aforesaid.

(4) On transfer as aforesaid, such a Registration Officer, other officer or employee, until his employment in the Authority is terminated in accordance with his terms and conditions of service or his terms and conditions as altered by regulations which shall not be less favourable than those by which he was governed immediately before his transfer to the Authority, shall continue to be so governed.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, any person referred to in sub-section (1) may within three months from the date of establishment of the Authority opt not to be transferred to the service of the Authority and the option so exercised shall be final and those persons who do not exercise their right of option in writing within the aforesaid period shall be deemed to have opted to be transferred to the Authority.

(6) All persons who opt under sub-section (5) not to be transferred to the service of the Authority shall be provided a suitable posting elsewhere within six months from the date of exercise of their option and till that time they shall remain on surplus pool of the Federal Government.

(7) The service of a person who does not accept the alternative appointment or posting offered to him within the time allowed by sub-section (6) shall stand terminated on the date on which he declines the offer or the time allowed to accept the offer expires, whichever is earlier, and such persons shall be entitled to be paid for a maximum period of three months.

(8) The termination of services of an employee under sub-section (7) shall be deemed to be discharge from service owing to abolition of a permanent post for the purposes of admissibility of compensation pension, etc.

(9) Every person on deputation or secondment to the Registration Organization or the National Database Organization from any other organization, department, agency or formation immediately before the establishment of the Authority shall, on such establishment, have an option either—

- (a) to remain employed in the Authority as a deputationist on the same terms and conditions of deputation as were applicable to him immediately before the establishment of the Authority; or
- (b) to opt for being absorbed in the Authority whereupon, if his option is so accepted by the Authority, he shall stand and be deemed to have been transferred to the Authority from the date of establishment of the Authority on such terms and conditions of service as the Authority may deem fit, which shall however not be less favourable, than those applicable to him as per his terms and conditions of deputation immediately before the establishment of the Authority:

Provided that the aforesaid option must be exercised within one month of the establishment of the Authority, where after a person not exercising either of the above options, or having opted under clause (b) but not accepted by the Authority, shall be deemed to have opted under clause (a) and all consequences shall thereafter accrue as if he had so opted under the said clause.

(10) No person who stands transferred to the Authority by virtue of sub-section (1) or sub-section (9) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, be entitled to any compensation because of such transfer.

(11) Any assets or other property of the Federal Government assigned or allocated for their use or any other purpose to such offices including the District Registration Offices, other offices, counters and any other formation of the Registration Organization as well as that of the National Database Organization shall stand transferred to and vested in the Authority.

(12) All suits and other legal proceedings instituted by or against the Federal Government, the Directorate of National Registration and the National Database Organization immediately before the commencement of this ordinance shall be deemed to be suits and proceedings by or against the Authority, as the case may be, and may proceed and be dealt with accordingly.

(13) All debts and liabilities incurred, contracts entered into or rights acquired and all matters and things, engaged to be done, by with and for the Directorate of National Registration and the National Database Organization before the commencement of this ordinance shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into, acquired or engaged to be done by, with or for the Authority as the case may be.

¹[41-A. Transfer of assets and liabilities of Alien Registration Authority.— (1) On transfer of the Alien Registration Authority (NARA) under Section 17 of the Foreigners Act, 1946 (XXXI of 1946), all employees of the NARA shall, subject to the following provisions, cease to be civil servants within the meaning of the Civil Servants Act, 1973 (LXXI of 1973) and shall be deemed to have always been appointed on comparable posts of the Authority, except for the purposes of financial benefits which shall not be admissible to them prior to the date of their transfer to the Authority.

¹Ins. by Act, No. XXVII of 2016, s. 3

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section, any person referred to in sub-section (1) may, within three months of the transfer, exercise an irrevocable option either to remain civil servant or, as the case may be, become employee of the Authority:

Provided that where any person does not exercise the option within the said period he shall be deemed to have opted to become employee of the Authority.

(3) Any person who opts under sub-section (2) to remain civil servant shall be provided with a comparable posting elsewhere within three months of the exercise of option and till such posting remain on surplus pool of the Federal Government.

(4) On transfer as aforesaid, a person, until his employment in the Authority is terminated in accordance with his terms and conditions of service or his terms and conditions as altered by regulations which shall not be less favourable than those by which he was governed immediately before his transfer, shall continue to be governed accordingly.

(5) No person who stands transferred to the Authority by virtue of sub-section (2) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, not entitled to any compensation because of such transfer.

(6) All assets and liabilities of the NARA including its counters and other formations shall, on commencement of the Foreigners (Amendment) Act, 2016 (XX of 2016), stand transferred to and vested in the Authority.

(7) The Federal Government shall pay to the Authority capitalized value of pension and gratuity in respect of employees, transferred to the Authority under sub-section (1) to which they have become entitled to or have been earned by them or have accumulated till their transfer to the Authority.

(8) All suits and other legal proceedings instituted by or against the Federal Government and NARA in respect of the matters of the foreigners registration immediately before commencement of the Foreigners (Amendment) Act, 2016 (XX of 2016) shall be deemed to be suits and legal proceedings of the Authority on and from such commencement and shall be dealt with by the Authority accordingly.

(9) All debts and liabilities incurred, contracts entered into or rights acquired and all matters and things done, engaged or to be done by or for the NARA immediately before commencement of the Foreigners (Amendment) Act, 2016 (XX of 2016) shall be deemed on such commencement to have been incurred, entered into, acquired, done, engaged or, as the case may be, to be done by or for the Authority.]

42. Exemption from taxes. Notwithstanding anything contained in the ¹[Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 (XLIX of 2001)] or any other law for the time being in force relating to income-tax, super tax and wealth tax, the Authority shall not be liable to pay and be exempted from paying any such taxes as aforesaid on its incomes, profits or gains for a period of five years beginning from the date of its establishment.

¹Subs. by Act No. V of 2007, s. 3

43. Ordinance ¹[XCI of 2002] not to apply to Authority. The Industrial Relations Ordinance, ¹[2002 (XCI of 2002)] shall not apply to or in relation to the Authority or any person in the service of the Authority.

44. Power to make rules. The Federal Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance:

Provided that till the time any amendments are made or any fresh rules are made in this behalf, the rules made under section 15 of the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973) and in force at the time of the establishment of the Authority shall be applied as nearly as practicable in the same manner as before to the extent the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance with any references to the Registrar General, Director General Registration Organization, or any competent authority by whatever nomenclature therein to be deemed to be a reference to the Authority.

45. Regulations.—(1) The Authority may, by notification in the official Gazette, make regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance or the rules, for the carrying out of its functions under this Ordinance and any other matter for which, under this Ordinance, provision may be made by regulations.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such regulations may provide for appointment of Registration Officers, members of its staff, experts, consultants, advisers and other officers and employees and the terms and conditions of their service:

Provided that, subject to the provisions of section 40 till the time any amendments are; made or any fresh regulations are made in this behalf, any rules or regulations governing the terms and conditions of their service and in force at the time of the establishment of the Authority shall be applied as nearly as practicable in the same manner as before to the extent the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, with any references to the Directorate General of Registration, or any competent authority by whatever nomenclature therein to be deemed to be a reference to the Authority.

46. Ordinance to override other laws. The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

47. Removal of difficulties. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any provision of this Ordinance, the Federal Government may make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, as may appear to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

48. Repeal.—(1) The National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973), any notification issued, powers delegated, contracts entered into, proceedings commenced, rights and liabilities incurred, fee or charges levied, things done or actions taken under any provision of the said Act shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provision of this Ordinance, be deemed to have been made, passed, issued, delegated, entered into, commenced, acquired, incurred, levied, done or taken under this Ordinance.
