THE POLICE (INCITEMENT TO DISAFFECTION) ACT, 1922

ACT No. XXII of 1922

[5th October, 1922]

An Act to provide a penalty for spreading disaffection among the police and for kindred offences.

WHEREAS it is expedient to penalize the spreading of disaffection among the police and other kindred offences; It is hereby enacted as follows: —

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Police (Incitement to Disaffection) Act, 1922.

(3) It shall come into force in any Province or part of a Province on such date<sup>4</sup> as the <sup>2</sup>[Provincial Government] may, by notification in the <sup>2</sup>[official Gazette], direct.

*2. Definition. In this Act the expression “member of a police-force” means any person appointed or enrolled for the performance of police duties under any enactment specified in the Schedule.

3. Penalty for causing disaffection, etc. Whoever intentionally causes or attempts to cause, or does any act which he knows is likely to cause, disaffection ; towards <sup>3</sup>[Pakistan] or the Government established by law in <sup>1</sup>[Pakistan] <sup>4</sup>[* * *] amongst the members of a police-force, or induces or attempts to induce, or does any act which he knows is likely to induce, any member of a police-force to withhold his services or to commit a breach of discipline shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

Explanation.— Expressions of disapprobation of the measures of the Government with a view to obtain their alteration by lawful means, or of disapprobation of the administrative or other action of the Government, do not constitute an offence under this section unless they cause or are made for the purpose of causing or are likely to cause disaffection.

4. Saving of acts done by police associations and other persons for certain purposes. Nothing shall be deemed to be an offence under this Act which is done in good faith—
